Meeting Notes:

We were pleased to have with us this evening Dick Chapman of the Glastonbury Club who has expressed his intention to be considered for transfer to our Club.

Our exchange students from South America, Dani and Nadi, told us that their time with us has been a "great experience." They both traveled a lot and visited many interesting places including New York City, Boston and Disney World. Dani just placed second in tennis for the entire State and when asked about how she would compare boys here to boys back home she said "boys are boys everywhere." Nadi said she kinda liked Suffield High School and that she especially loved maple syrup and peanut butter, both very fattening and unavailable back in South America.

Our Student-of-the-Month for June was Katelin Willoughby. She came accompanied by her parents, John & Kathryn and siblings Shaun & Emily. Katelin played Field Hockey all 4 years at Suffield High School, this year as Captain. She was extensively involved with community service activities including Giraffe Club, Ronald McDonald House and by raking leaves and by doing other support work that aided our senior citizens. Katelin has a love for young children especially and plans to attend Southern Connecticut State University this fall and eventually would like to become a 1st Grade elementary school teacher.

Please be prepared to vote on the final draft of our Club Bylaws at our June 21, 2005 meeting. Bye, TJM.

Kevin welcomed back Treasurer Paul Pace who had a great vacation trip abroad.

The Proposed Bylaws, mailed in advance to Club members, were presented by Kevin for a vote. A motion was made by Jim Wood to accept the new Bylaws. This motion was seconded by Tom Modzelesky and it was passed unanimously. Kevin expressed thanks to Dave Anderson for his fine work in preparing the Bylaws.

Kevin announced that he has committed $250 from our budget towards the purchase of 25 copies of the book, The First Thirty, for possible distribution to next year's Sophomore and Junior class students. He noted plans for an essay contest with help from English Teacher, Allen Hoffacker.

Speaker Scott Seabury gave a humorous tour of the church of today which he entitled, "As The Church Turns".

Jim Wood reminded members of the upcoming August 12 Packard Golf Tournament to be held at the Oakridge Country Club. There are presently 32 five person teams. Tee sponsorships at $100 are available.

As there were no playing cards available for the Queen of Hearts drawing, winner Kevin Goff will pull the first card next week.

Reminder: The Paul Harris Award Dinner is next Tuesday, June 28, with spouses. Please let Scott Seabury know by Noon on Thursday, June 23, who is attending and your choice of fish, beef, or poultry. Scott's email is: seabs52@aol.com
