Queen of Hearts

Pot is now $ 150.00
Peter Das drew for the Queen of Hearts but didn't win.

Elaine opened our meeting with the Pledge of Allegiance and the Four Way Test. Scott said Grace.

There was a lengthy discussion at the Board meeting regarding the 60th anniversary of Suffield Rotary and the anniversary of charter members; and of course Lev who has had sixty years of perfect attendance. We are hoping someone people will come forward to help plan this event.

Linda Stevenson gave a presentation for recruiting Suffield residents to become members of Suffield Volunteer Ambulance Association. Currently, the SVAA has more members from out of town than local residents. It is a remarkable tribute to our service that so many people are attracted from outside our area, taking advantage of our training, facilities and comradeship. The value of volunteer hours contributed last year was over $400,000.00. As Linda puts it "What else could you do to sometimes meet people at the worst moment of their lives and make a difference?"
